Developments that await us in the Pasarela Cibeles Autumn / Winter 2011/2012

As we approach the Madrid Fashion Week for us is always the Pasarela Cibeles, we know more details and many new features.

One that surprised me most is the debut of the Galician designer Sara Coleman on the catwalk of the consecrated. It's his turn to march with the largest and most prestigious, and make its incorporation of the overall program Ego Cibeles. And the truth is he deserves it because their designs are very elegant and original. His collections are often characterized by the clean silhouettes and I'm sure you will love. In the first picture you can see some of his designs.

But best of all and I know that you will love the emphasis is going to give the street-style. Yes, yes, you read right. And this year, if you go to Cibeles, you can participate in an official parade just for you, which I like to look cool and you're going a trendsetter. A walkway has been named

People en Cibeles Cool and all have the opportunity to participate. If you click on your website you will see all the requirements.

On Wednesday 23 February will take place at the Cibeles fashion show room with 50 participants selected a jury of some of the most prestigious names in the national fashion pick the boy and girl Sable Fall-Winter 2011.
